White template area shows fabric cutting where the graphic should be placed.
Red line means the front part of the fabric which will be visible on the deckchair
Black line means place through which the seams will pass.