

The diagram shows a rectangular layout divided into three vertical sections. The left and right sections are solid blue rectangles, each containing the word "Contents" written vertically in white. The middle section is a light gray rectangle containing the text "front side" in blue. Dashed vertical lines separate the blue sections from the gray section, and solid vertical lines separate the gray section from the other blue section.

Contents

front side

Contents