

White template area shows fabric cutting where the graphic should be placed.

— Red line means the front part of the fabric which will be visible on the deckchair

- - - Black line means place through which the seams will pass.